that resolution? A. No, I was not opposed to that resolution.

The Court: Adjourn.

(Thereupon, at 3:55 o'clock P. M., an adjournment was taken until 10:00 o'clock A. M., the following day, Wednesday, January 25, 1950.)

1445 Court reconvened at 10:00 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, January 25, 1950, pursuant to adjournment.

Mr. Jaureguy: There are two doctors, your Honor, whose cross examination has not been completed. One is Dr. Waltz, who was on the stand Monday; the other is Dr. McLean. I have no preference as to which goes on first.

Mr. Marcus: I have no particular preference, your Honor. I think it would depend upon which doctor has occasion to get away first.

Mr. Jaureguy: Go ahead. If you don't finish with Dr. McLean before recess, then we will ask permission to put Dr. Waltz on.

Mr. Marcus: I am going to have to apologize to your Honor and to the witness on account of my cold this morning.

The Court: We have some good throat doctors here in town.

Mr. Marcus: Internally, your Honor, or this way (illustrating)?

There are two things I would like to bring up briefly. First, yesterday I brought up the question of the offer of defendants' documents. Looking at yesterday's transcript, it does not clearly appear and after a conference with the Reporters they are not at all certain that the documents were at all offered and admitted subject to the objection. I wonder if Mr. Jaureguy would take care of that.

Mr. Jaureguy: I can't take care of admitting 1446 them. I now offer in evidence the particular numbered documents that I listed yesterday and also Pre-Trial Exhibits No. 2501 up to the last one that has been marked for pre-trial on behalf of defendants.

The Court: They are admitted the same as in connection with exhibits previously dealt with, subject to the same objections now made or that may hereafter be stated before the conclusion of the trial.
